Practor Laps Field to Win Ascot Main

Clem Procter, the "Squire of Paramount," and Nester Silvera of Gardena shared the main-event honors Sunday afternoon at Ascot Park in California Auto Racing association action.

Procter started last in the field of 16 modified stock and in 13 furious laps stormed into the lead, lapping all but second place Gary Whittman of Pasadena in his drive to the victory on the Ascot half-mile oval.

Veteran driver Jim Cook of Norwalk captured the 1964 CAR stock car division title only after the final point count was in and several protests were settled, with Cliff Garner of West Los Angeles taking second just 10 points behind Cook.

Montgomery Bows To West, 76-48

West High raced to a 76-48 victory over visiting Bishop Montgomery yesterday afternoon in a non-league basketball game. The win, second of the season against the Knights, brought the Warriors' season record to 7-4 as the practice round of games came to an end.

Everybody played for West, and almost everybody scored. Coach Tom Sutherland retired his regulars after a blazing third quarter in which the Warriors scored 25 points while holding Montgomery to a pair of field goals and one free throw.

Miami Driver To Compete At Riverside

Popular Bobby Johns of Miami, Fla., filed his entry today for the Jan. 17 Motor Trend-Riverside 500-mile stock car road race at Riverside International Raceway.

The 30-year old pilot will drive a 1965 Ford entered by Holman & Moody of Charlotte, N.C. His dad, former midjet racing star Socrates "Shorty" Johns is expected to handle the pit work for Bobby.

In his only previous appearance at Riverside, during the inaugural 500 in 1963, Johns drove a Pontiac to fifth place. He has been racing since 1951.

South Downs Cards

South and Long Beach Poly clash in Round 2 of the Compton Invitational Basketball today at Compton at 5 p.m. The Spartans overwhelmed Whittier, 97-54, for their highest scoring effort of the year Monday.

Ed Holmes had his best day of the year, too, scoring 28 points.

South ambushed Whittier's Cardinals with a 32-point fourth quarter.

Poly knocked off Arroyo, 86-44, in a first round tilt.

The losers of today's game between South and Poly, and Pius X and Centennial, will be eliminated from the tournament. Otherwise the survivors will be assured playoff berths in the bid for the top four places.

A South victory has postponed its Bay League opener against Santa Monica until Monday, Feb. 15.

Blades Play Tonight at Seattle Rink

Seattle's Western Hockey League-leading Totems make their second Southland safari of the season when they open a two-match series with the Los Angeles Blades on Sports Arena ice at 8 p.m. tonight.

The teams tangle again Friday at Los Angeles.

Manager-Coach Keith Allen's Totems hold an advantage over the Blades thus far, having won three, lost twice and tied once in six meetings. The teams split a two-game set at Los Angeles.

Tonight's engagement will be L.A.'s fifth game in six days. Coach Alf Pike and his proteges performed last night at Vancouver. The Blades will play their sixth game in eight nights Friday and their seventh in nine nights at Portland Saturday before slowing to a more humane pace.
